Such petition shall ordinarily be presented within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice mentioned in section twenty-eight. But if the Collector is satisfied that the objector has not received such notice, the petition may be presented within fifteen days from the day on which in the Collector's opinion he became aware of the assessment:

Provided that no person served with a notice under section twenty-three shall be entitled to apply by petition under this section unless he has made the return required in such notice on or before the day therein mentioned, or unless he satisfies the Collector that he had a sufficient excuse for not making such return.

The petition shall be in the form contained in the schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and the statements therein contained shall be verified by the petitioner or some other competent person in manner required by law for the verification of plaints.

32. The Collector shall fix a day and place for the hearing of the petition, and, on the day and at the place so fixed, or on the day and at the place (if any) to which he has adjourned such hearing, shall hear such petition and pass his order thereon.

If the order be in favour of the petitioner, the Collector shall at once refund the fee on the petition.

If the order simply reject the petition or reject the petition and enhance the petitioner's assessment, the petitioner shall within fifteen days from the passing of the order pay the amount mentioned in the said notice or in the order of enhancement (as the case may be).

The time requisite for obtaining a copy of the order shall be excluded in computing the said period of fifteen days.

The order of such Commissioner shall be final. It may be in favour of the petitioner, or it may simply reject the petition, or it may reject the petition and enhance the assessment to an amount to be specified in the decision.

If the order rejects the petition and enhances the assessment, the petitioner shall within one week from the passing of the order pay the amount mentioned in the order of enhancement.

Every petition presented under this section shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition to the Collector, and a copy of the Collector's order thereon and a list of the documents (if any) on which the appellant relies.

Neither of such copies shall be chargeable under the Court Fees Act.

34. The Collector or Commissioner may summon any person whom he thinks able to give evidence for the purpose of enabling him to determine how the petitioner, or the Company which he represents, should be assessed, and may examine on oath the person so summoned and the petitioner, and may require each of them to produce any documents in his possession or power relating to the sources of the income in question.

35. Whenever the Collector has reason to believe that, in assessing any person under this Act, any source of income not specified in the receipt granted to him under section twenty-nine has been overlooked, which source, if it had then been known to exist, would have increased the assessment, the Collector may cause a further notice to be served on such person, stating the amount to be paid in respect of such source.

The provisions contained in sections twenty-eight to thirty-four (both inclusive) shall apply to such notice and regulate the procedure thereunder.

PART VII.

PAYMENT AND RECOVERY OF DUTIES.

36. All duties under this Act, except when they are deducted under section eight, section nine, or section sixteen shall be payable on the first day of April 1871:

37. In any case of default under this Act, the Collector may, if a notice has been served on the defaulter requiring him to pay, within fifteen days from the date of the service, the amount of the duty or instalment due by him under this Act, either recover a sum not exceeding double the amount as if it were an arrear of land-revenue, or pass an order that a sum not exceeding double the amount of such duty or instalment shall be recovered from such defaulter.

Every such order shall have the force of a decree of a Civil Court in a suit in which the Government is the plaintiff and the defaulter is the defendant; and such order may be enforced in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for the enforcement of decrees for money and the procedure under the said Code in respect of the following matters:—

- (a) sales in execution of decrees;
- (b) arrests in execution of decrees for money;
- (c) execution of decrees by imprisonment;
- (d) claims to attached property; and
- (e) execution of decrees out of the jurisdiction of the Courts by which they were passed, shall apply to every execution issued for levying the monies mentioned in such order, save that all the powers and duties conferred and imposed by the said Code upon the Court shall be executed by the Collector by whom such order has been made or to whom a copy thereof has been transmitted for execution according to the provisions of the said Code, section two hundred and eighty-six:

Provided that, where any person has presented a petition under section thirty-one, such sum shall not be recoverable from him unless, within fifteen days from the passing of the order thereon, he fails to pay the amount (if any) required by such order.

On the recovery of such sum from the defaulter, the Collector shall grant him a receipt without any further payment.

Every such receipt shall bear date from the recovery of the amount, and, save as aforesaid, the provisions of this Act relating to receipts shall apply to receipts granted under this section.

38. If during or within two months from the end of the year for which any assessment under Part V has been made, the Company or person assessed proves to the satisfaction of the Collector, that the nett profits or income of such Company or person during such year fell short of the sum so assessed, the Collector may cause the assessment made for such year to be amended as the case requires, and if the sum assessed has been paid, may refund the sum overpaid.

In case any Company or person assessed under Part III or Part V ceases to carry on the trade or business in respect whereof such assessment was made, or if any such person dies or becomes insolvent before the end of the year for which the assessment was made, or if any such Company or person is, from any other specific cause, deprived of or loses the income on which the assessment was made, such Company or person or its or his representative in interest may apply to the Collector within three months after the end of such year, and on proof thereof to his satisfaction, the Collector shall amend the assessment as the case may require, and give such relief to the Company or person charged as is just, and in cases requiring it, the Collector shall refund such sum as has been overpaid on the assessment amended or vacated.

PART VIII.

and every trustee, guardian, curator, committee or agent failing to deliver any statement or declaration required by section nineteen,

Simla, the 21st April 1871.

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,—(No. 80, dated India Office, London, the 10th March 1871.)

PARA. 1. In continuation of my Financial despatch dated the 5th January last, No. 2, I have to request that the rate of exchange therein fixed for officers' remittances and effects may be adopted by you in the recovery in India from Civil Engineers, Mechanics, and others, of the portions of their salaries which have been made payable to their families in this country.

2. I take this opportunity of informing you that the privilege of making family allotments will, for the future, as a general rule, be strictly confined to the class of mechanics, boiler-makers, &c., who would probably find it very difficult to make remittances through ordinary channels. Special cases, however, will be considered and decided on their merits.

No. 8.

To all Zillah Judges and Judicial Commissioners,—(dated Calcutta, the 6th April 1871.)

I AM directed to forward herewith for your information and guidance, and for communication to the Moonsiffs subject to your control, the amended rule given below, which has been framed at the instance of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, for the guidance of the police employed on escort duty in connexion with remittances made by Moonsiffs, and to state that the present instructions should be regarded as superseding those conveyed in Circular Order No. 9, dated 13th July 1868, which is hereby cancelled.

By order, &c.,
(Sd.) W. M. SOUTTAR,
Offg. Registrar.

AMENDED RULE.

Rule 26.—Where Moonsiffs' Courts exist, a day in each month will be fixed by the Judge on which the money will be paid over to the police for transmission to the treasury.

Clause I.—The Moonsiff will give notice at the police station on the day before the guard is required, and the police officer in charge will himself, on the day appointed, proceed to the Moonsiff's cutcherry with a guard as directed in the above instructions.

Clause II.—The money will then be counted in the presence of the officer in charge of the guard and placed in a bag, which will then and there be sealed and made over to the guard, who will forthwith proceed with it to the treasury or sub-divisional treasury. The officer in charge will be furnished with a memorandum of the amount.

Clause III.—The police officer will cause the bag and seal to be inspected in his presence by the treasury officer to whom it is addressed; and while held responsible for the total amount in the bag, he will not, provided the bag and seal show no signs of being tampered with, be called on to replace any light or spurious coin that it may contain.

Clause IV.—The above rules apply to small remittances made by Moonsiffs in bags. Larger remittances will be sent more securely packed.

Clause V.—The provisions of paragraphs 12 and 18* apply equally to the transport of all remittances from Moonsiffs' Courts. If a remittance be in copper coin, and exceeds six seers and one pound in weight, coolie labor should be employed.

Clause VI.—Should any necessity arise for a second remittance during the month, the same course will be pursued on due notice being given at the police station.

* Paragraphs 12 and 18 alluded to above.

"12. Under ordinary circumstances the strength of escorts shall be as follows:—

For Prisoners.

For one to three prisoners ... 2 constables.
 " four to six prisoners ... *3 ditto.
 * Of these, one man to act as head constable.

For seven to twelve prisoners, one head constable and 4 constables.

For thirteen to eighteen prisoners, one head constable and 6 constables.

For nineteen to twenty-four prisoners, one head constable and eight constables, and so on in proportion.

N.B.—When a guard of more than 8 men is deemed necessary, additional head constables should be allowed in proportion.

For Treasure.

For sums not exceeding Rs. 30, a single constable of known integrity and trustworthiness.

N.B.—If such an officer be not available, two constables should be sent.

For any amount above Rs. 30, and not exceeding Rs. 250, two constables.

For Rs. 250, and up to Rs. 500, three constables.

N.B.—One of these should act as head constable.

When the sum of money transmitted under the escort of the police does not exceed Rs. 500, it should be carried by the police themselves without the employment of coolie labor.

For any amount above Rs. 500, and not exceeding Rs. 1,000, four constables.

N.B.—One of these should act as head constable.

For any sum above Rs. 1,000, and not exceeding Rs. 10,000, a regular guard of at least one head constable and four constables.

For upwards of Rs. 10,000, and not more than one lakh, one head constable and eight constables.

For one to two lakhs, two head constables and twelve to sixteen constables.

Above two lakhs, one sub-inspector and two head constables, and sixteen to twenty constables, and so on; for each lakh above two lakhs four constables in addition, and officers in proportion.

When treasure is escorted by rail, a head constable and two constables are deemed sufficient; but during the transit of the treasure to the railway van, or from it, a proper guard of full strength as above must be provided.

When treasure is conveyed by steamer, a guard of one head constable and six armed constables should be detailed with any amount not exceeding one lakh. The men should furnish one sentry by day and two by night, if necessary. With a despatch of treasure exceeding one lakh, the guard should be increased in proportion up to a maximum of twelve constables.

"18. All arrangements as regards carriage will devolve upon the officer to whom the escort is supplied, and will not in any way form part of the duty of the police. Prisoners and treasures should not, unless under special circumstances, be sent together."

Notification.

THE Commissioners for making Improvements in the Port of Calcutta, with the sanction of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, hereby declare that Jetties, No. 1 to 4, situate on the east bank of the port below Armenian Ghât, are ready for receiving, landing, and shipping goods from and upon sea-going vessels.

By order of the Commissioners,

W. D. BRUCE,
Vice-Chairman.

The 25th April 1871.

Commissioners for making improvements in the Port of Calcutta.

Report of the Auditors upon the accounts for the half year ending 31st March 1871, published under the provisions of Section LIII. of Act V. (B.C.) of 1870.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS FOR MAKING IMPROVEMENT IN THE PORT OF CALCUTTA.

Calcutta, 22nd April 1871.

GENTLEMEN,

WE, the Auditors appointed under Section 53 of the Calcutta Port Improvement Act, have the honor to report that we have examined and audited the accounts of the Commissioners for the half year ending the 31st March 1871, and we find the income to have been Rs. 12,78,131-10-8, and the outlay Rs. 9,86,280-4-9, as set forth in the annexed statement of receipts and expenditure. We also find the value of the several works, machinery and plant, representing the "block" of the trust, to be Rs. 8,86,102-5-5, and the balance to be Rs. 2,91,851-5-11, of which Rs. 38,275-6-5

* In Bank, Rs. 2,53,324-9-1	is due from Government,
In Chest, " 251-0-5	and Rs. 2,53,575-15-6*
Total, Rs. 2,53,575-15-6	cash, in chest and in Bank of Bengal, as set forth in the annexed statement of assets and liabilities of the trust.

We note that a sum of Rs. 3,957-7-6 has been credited to Establishment Revenue, and debited to new works on account of supervision, and further that no charge has been made to Revenue on account of depreciation, or wear and tear of works, machinery, and plant. Though such a charge was perhaps unnecessary in the operations of the first half year of the trust, we consider that provision should be made for this charge to Revenue in future years.

3. We have examined the vouchers for every entry of receipt and disbursement shown in the cash book, and ascertained that each item has been carried to its proper sub-head through the several books. We have examined the pass books of the Bank of Bengal, and found that all monies shown to have been collected have been duly paid into the Bank; and also that the balance above mentioned, Rs. 2,53,324-9-1, is acknowledged by the Bank's certificate. We have also ascertained that all charges to works and establishments are covered by proper sanction.

4. We further beg to state that the audit has been duly completed after notice as provided by the Act, but the examination of the books and vouchers has been carried on from month to month, as affording the means of a closer check than could be obtained after the close of the half year.

5. The several books, as set forth in pages 35 and 36 of the memorandum by the Collector of Customs and the Vice-Chairman, have been kept in a very satisfactory manner by the accountant, Mr. Jebb.

We have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servants,
